Here is bold face.
Here is italic font.
Here is `plain text`.

"use two back ticks to start a quotation and two single quotes to end a quotation".

- first bullet point

- second bullet point

- third bullet point

1. first point

2. second point

3. third point

Fortunately, most of what you do for writing in actually follows the rules for plain text

```
Text here is literal. with no formatting signs careful, there is also no margin control!
```

> This indents an entire paragraph for an extended quotations

```r
x <- runif(10)
y <- runif(10)
comments as always with a hashtag
print(x)

[1] 0.05714518 0.62670629 0.57056055 0.52278942 0.16513722 0.04016951
[7] 0.96858433 0.88209245 0.81673845 0.91020790

plot(x,y)
